

Driving Directions to Tyax Adventures - based at Tyax Wilderness Resort and Spa

FROM VANCOUVER:

Option A – Hurley River Gravel Road (Summer Only)

From Vancouver take Highway 1 to Horseshoe Bay then Highway 99 to Whistler. 35 kms after Whistler the road forms a "T" at a set of traffic lights - turn left into the village of Pemberton (make sure to gas up!). After crossing the railroad tracks the road forms a "T" again. You will come to a stop sign where you will turn right onto Birch Avenue. Follow this road as it turns into Pemberton Meadow Road.

After 23 kms (14.4 miles) you will see "Lillooet Forest Service Road", turn right and follow this road as it turns from pavement to dirt. After 9 km, you will cross over a bridge and see the "Hurley River & Gold Bridge" sign on the right, take this road uphill.

This logging road starts out to be steep but flattens out on top. It then goes downhill into the Bridge River Valley. After 36kms on this road there will be a collection of signs, follow the road straight over the bridge towards Gold Bridge, do not turn right to Bralorne. After a total of 60kms (35 miles) on this gravel road you approach a paved road, bear right. You are now on Highway 40.

After 200 yards (1/4 kms) you will see the bridge to Gold Bridge on the right. Do not cross the bridge - stay on Hwy. 40 and after 8 km (5 miles) you see the Tyax Adventures/Tyax Lodge sign. Turn left here and after another 8 kms you are at the Tyax Adventures base on the shores of Tyaughton Lake.

WARNING: The Hurley River Road is not a highway but a Forest Service Road. Please check with either the Highways department (ph: 1-900-451-4997) or Tyax Lodge to make sure the road is open.

Option B – Carpenter Lake Road (Road #40)
